SELF CATERING ESSENTIALS

OUT OF EDEN

everything you need for great hospitality

Come & see us at the ASSC conference on the 7th November 2017

After countless requests from our many self-catering customers we have added a range of kitchen essentials to cater for the start-up or a handy one-stop-shop for replacements.

As this is our first range of kitchen items, we have selected good quality mid-range brands that are all well-known and trusted.

If you are starting up and want items packing for individual properties or we are missing something you need, do contact us. We are always open to suggestions!

What makes Out of Eden so different?

A Family Business

Out of Eden is owned and run by husband and wife team, Ian and Janet Hartley, who founded the business 24 years ago after working in hotels and catering. They take personal pride in ensuring that the principles on which the business was founded are upheld, supported by a hard working team, based in this quiet corner of Cumbria, where traditional values still count.

Your Privacy Protected

Unlike many mail order companies who sell their customers' address details on the open market, we will never pass on your name and address. You can rest assured that your details remain confidential, because we respect the trust you put in us.

You Come First

We will never be one of those faceless companies you tell us about, where you have to press buttons just to speak to someone! You are safe in the hands of a friendly and caring team that is delighted to help you, and should you ever have a problem or wish to ask our advice, we are just a phone call away.

Money Back Guarantee

In the unlikely event that you are less than 100% happy with any of your purchases, contact us within 30 days and we will arrange for its return entirely at our expense. Now you can buy fast, fuss free and without any risk whatsoever!
