OWNER TESTIMONIALS

"I contacted Discover Scotland following a recommendation and after researching other companies to market my new holiday home as a holiday let. I found Discover Scotland to be the most reasonable when it came to commission and also flexible with regards to my own requirements with no restriction on my own use. Having no previous letting experience, I found the staff at Discover Scotland very knowledgeable, very helpful and professional to deal with. I was given valuable advice on how best to furnish my property including all the up to date regulations and the latest health and safety legislation. Nothing was too much trouble; they even suggested a trustworthy and reliable housekeeper which saved me a lot of time and gave me peace of mind.

I'm in my second full year now and I'm extremely happy with the service from Discover Scotland and especially the bookings with many repeat customers."

Michelle Greenhalgh, Moorsheil, Rockcliffe

"We have had our cottage with Discover Scotland for over 20 years and in all that time we have never had any problems whatsoever. WE have always been treated with an excellent service and have received plenty of bookings. Payments and bookings come through on time and over the years the bookings have increased substantially. I would have no hesitation in recommending them to other holiday home owners."
